You create a 7-10 minute film in 16mm or 35mm with your group. Creating an entire film in one semester won't be easy, but the end result will be worth it.

- The first half of the program focuses on pitching, screenwriting, and developing your group.
- At the end of the program, get the hands-on experience you've been craving: attend lighting and sound workshops, shoot on location with real film, and put it all together in the editing room.
