

IDENTITY ABROAD

EXPLORE WHO YOU ARE ABROAD

Study abroad gives you an unparalleled opportunity to learn more about yourself. And regardless of whether or not you think it will play a role in your own experience, understanding what identity might look like in your host country is a crucial step in supporting yourself and your peers.

GET YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED

When it comes to studying abroad, preparation is key. What housing options exist for gender diverse students in Italy? What's the local climate towards issues and individuals of underrepresented communities in Osaka? Will Taiwan be difficult to navigate with mobility issues? No two study abroad experiences are the same, but we're here to help no matter where you're headed.

"This experience forces reflection on your outlook regarding previous bias, cultural practice, and interaction with countries. Despite the inevitable challenges, this was an unforgettable experience that shaped my perspective on the world."

– Anonymous final evaluation
CET Colombia

EXPLORE
IDENTITY
ABROAD
RESOURCES

WHO STUDIES ABROAD WITH CET?

CET sends nearly 2,000 students abroad each year. We strive to create and maintain programs that support students of all races, religions, abilities, gender identities, and sexual orientations. The demographic makeup of CET students varies by program, but we are proud to say that our student population overall is more diverse than the national study abroad average.

IDENTITY IN THE CLASSROOM AND BEYOND

Want to integrate the study of identity into your study abroad experience? Some CET programs have courses that explore these themes from a local lens. Here are just a few for inspiration:

PROGRAMS ON IDENTITY

- CET Colombia: Race, Ethnicity, & Identity through an Afro-Colombian Lens
- CET Brazil: Social Justice & Inequality

COURSES ON IDENTITY

- Taiwan: Gender & Sexuality in Taiwan
- Jordan: Creating & Becoming: Arab Women, Authority, & Leadership
- Prague: Jewish Life in Contemporary Europe

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR STUDY ABROAD

Apply for CET and Fund for Education Abroad (FEA) scholarships to make studying abroad more financially accessible.

CET SCHOLARSHIPS

- Identity Abroad Scholarship
- Need-Based Scholarship
- Academic Excellence Scholarship
- Katerina Jurecková Scholarship for Jewish Studies
- HBCU Grants

FEA SCHOLARSHIPS

- CET Access Partner Scholarships
- Various Rainbow Scholarships
- Tamara Bryant Memorial Scholarship for Black Students
- Gateway Scholarship for First-Generation Students

“China encouraged me to articulate all parts of myself more boldly. It made me consider how race travels globally, how nationality gets misread, and how diaspora can both confuse and connect people. And in many ways, it helped me better realize that identity is a practice that responds to place, to language, and to the people who ask the questions that make us think differently about ourselves.”

– Mariam Fofana, CET Shanghai