

WHO IS CET?

CET Academic Programs is a study abroad organization that has been developing and operating innovative educational programs abroad since 1982. Originally “China Educational Tours,” CET began operations in Beijing, and today offers a varied portfolio of semester, summer, and customized programs around the world.

WHAT WE'RE KNOWN FOR

- High quality academics
- Professional program management
- Supportive student services
- Local roommates and connections
- Collaborative approach to partnership
- Environmentally conscious practices
- Commitment to inclusive excellence
- Respect for local hosts

HOW WE COLLABORATE

When we partner with an institution, our strategy for success is genuine, two-way collaboration. Whether it's on a standard, semester-long program or a custom, faculty-led program, we work with you to craft offerings that meet your unique needs, and we welcome the creative ideas that our partners bring to our own portfolio. Helping you to grow and expand helps us to do the same.

MORE ABOUT US

WHERE OUR STUDENTS COME FROM

CET students come from a diverse array of academic institutions: from small liberal arts colleges to large public universities. Some of our top partners include:

- American University
- University of Wisconsin - Madison
- Bowdoin College
- University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill
- Cornell University
- University of Michigan - Ann Arbor
- University of Virginia
- University of Minnesota - Twin Cities
- Vanderbilt University
- Yale University

OUR ACADEMIC PARTNERSHIPS

We collaborate with partner institutions around the world to deliver academically-challenging programs and proof of the academic work students complete within these programs. Our partnerships with locally accredited host universities allow us to jointly issue transcripts. And our School of Record relationships with the University of Minnesota (all programs except for CET Siena) and the University of Virginia (CET Siena) allow every CET student who requires a US university-issued transcript to access one.
