

CET Syllabus of Record

Program: CET Japan

Course Code/Title: (OS/ LANG 205) Intermediate Japanese 1

Total Hours: 90

Recommended Credits: 6

Primary Discipline: Japanese Language

Language of Instruction: Japanese

Prerequisites/Requirements: Successful completion of one year of Japanese, OS/LANG 150, OS/LANG 155, or equivalent. Final Placement at discretion of Academic Director.

Description

This course is designed to build on Japanese language fundamentals with a wide range of vocabulary, complex grammatical structures, and various levels of formality and politeness. It integrates the study of both formal and informal and written and spoken language, through listening, speaking, and reading exercises. The focus is on communicative competence and the completion of tasks, both in the classroom and the surrounding environment, involving interactions with native speakers of Japanese.

Objectives

By the end of this course, students are able to:

- Read and write short reports on personal experiences and historical accounts.
- Read questionnaires and visual data (i.e., graphs) and interpret and write reports in Japanese.
- Read and write approximately 240 kanji characters.
- Communicate comfortably and express themselves in hypothetical situations.
- Express their abilities/capabilities and volitional feelings.
- Use benefactive expressions in socially appropriate situations.
- Have a familiarity with various aspects of Japanese culture, and function in both formal and informal social interactions with Japanese native speakers on a range of topics.

Course Requirements

Graded assignments include:

- Participation: Active participation is essential in this course. Students are expected to attend each class and field study course component, as outlined in the CET Attendance Policy. Students are expected to read all assigned materials before the relevant class session and come prepared to participate thoughtfully in class discussions.
- Homework: Multiple homework assignments are provided for each chapter and additional independent preparation and review is expected. Students are expected to submit homework at the beginning of class.
- Quizzes: Vocabulary, grammar, and Hiragana/Katakana/Kanji quizzes are given for every chapter which amounts to 18 quizzes. Students can drop the 4 lowest-marked quizzes.

CET Syllabus of Record

- Examinations: One mid-term examination (written and speaking) and one final exam (written and speaking) are given. The mid-term exam covers Chapters 13-15, and the final exam covers Chapters 13-18.
- Project: Each semester a student is assigned a semester-long project. Students select a topic about Japanese culture or society and present it in Japanese to Japanese people. The final product is presented orally in Japanese; first, in speech format in class, and second, a poster session format at the two-hour open house.

Grading

- Mid-term Exam 20%
- Final Exam 25%
- Quizzes (14 at 1.4%) 20%
- Project 20%
 - Process 8%
 - Final Product 12%
- Homework 10%
- Participation 5%

Readings

Banno, Eri, Yoko Ikeda, Yutaka Ohno, Chikako Shinagawa, and Kyoko Tokashiki. Genki II: An Integrated Course in Elementary Japanese, Tokyo: The Japan Times. 2020.

Banno, Eri, Yoko Ikeda, Yutaka Ohno, Chikako Shinagawa, and Kyoko Tokashiki. Genki II Workbook, Tokyo: Japan Times, 2020.

Outline of Course Content

The first six chapters are covered over the course of the semester. Chapters Include:

Chapter 13: Looking for a Part-time Job
Chapter 14: Valentine's Day Chapter 15: A
Trip to Nagano Chapter 16: Lost and
Found Chapter 17: Grumble and Gossip
Chapter 18: John's Part-time Job

Additional curated course content focuses specifically on developing the Project, essential Japanese skills for living and studying in Osaka, and several field study course components.