Description

This course is designed to expand upon a strong language foundation with a particular focus on expanding communicative skills to interact with native speakers of Japanese. It is an integrated language course focusing on both the formal and informal written and spoken language. The goal of the course is to acquire communicative competence through tasks both in and out of the classroom. Conversational use of language in Japanese society is the main emphasis of the course, where language is viewed as social and cultural activity.

Objectives

By the end of this course, students are able to:

- Read, write, and use at least 800 kanji in a variety of contexts.
- Communicate with Japanese native speakers naturally in a variety of social contexts.
- Understand hidden messages or background information by reading texts written for Japanese native speakers and be able to exchange opinions on a wide range of topics in various situations.
- Have a strong familiarity with Japanese daily life and culture.
- Gain proficiency equivalent to the Japanese Language Proficiency Test level N3.

Course Requirements

Graded assignments include:

- Participation: Active participation is essential in this course. Students are expected to attend each class and field study course component, as outlined in the CET Attendance Policy. Students are expected to read all assigned materials before the relevant class session and come prepared to participate thoughtfully in class discussions.
- Homework: Multiple homework assignments are provided for each chapter and additional independent preparation and review is expected. Students are expected to submit homework at the beginning of class.
- Quizzes: Vocabulary, grammar, and Hiragana/Katakana/Kanji quizzes are given for every chapter which amounts to 18 quizzes. Students can drop the 3 lowest-marked quizzes.
- Tests/Examinations: Students take three written tests, there is one test every three chapters.

CET Syllabus of Record

- Project: Each semester a student is assigned a semester-long project. Students select a topic about Japanese culture or society and present it in Japanese to Japanese people. The final product is presented orally in Japanese; first, in speech format in class, and second, a poster session format at the two-hour open house.
