CET Grading Scale

All CET courses use the following scale in assessing student performance, except for CET Siena.

Quantitative Scale		Qualitative Scale
A	93 to 100%	A range: Excellent. Consistently outstanding performance throughout the semester.
A-	90 to <93%
B+	87 to <90%	B range: Good. A solid performance that is above average, but not outstanding.
B	83 to <87%
B-	80 to <83
C+	77 to <80%	C range: Satisfactory. An average performance wherein the minimum criteria listed in the course syllabus has been achieved.
C	73 to <77%
C-	70 to <73%
D+	67 to <70%	D range: Minimal pass. Work is seriously deficient in multiple areas including reasoning, writing, attendance, and participation.
D	60 to <67%
F	<60% and below	F: Failing. Work that fails to meet the minimum criteria in all aspects.
I	N/A	I: Incomplete. A placeholder for coursework that is being completed after the conclusion of the program, or due to an early withdrawal from it. If the coursework is not completed by the established deadline, the final grade will be calculated on the basis of the work performed.
W	N/A	W: Withdrawal. Reported when a student withdraws from a course or a program after the program-specific course drop/add deadline.
